

MEMBERSHIP AND ACCOUNTS AGREEMENT

This Agreement is the contract of deposit which covers your and our rights and responsibilities concerning Membership and Account(s) offered to you by Kitsap Credit Union ("Credit Union"). In this Agreement, the words "you" and "yours" mean those who sign the Membership and Account Card as members, opens accounts online and electronically agree to the Membership Agreement, joint owners, or any authorized users. The words "we," "us," and "our" mean the Credit Union. The word "account" means any one or more deposit accounts you have with the Credit Union, including savings, checking, money market, and certificates, as applicable.

By signing the Membership and Account Card ("account card") or providing an electronic signature and consent to any online account card or application that is a part of the Agreement, each of you, jointly and severally, agree to the terms and conditions in this Agreement, including the Funds Availability Policy, the Rate and Fee Schedule, and Truth-in-Savings disclosures accompanying this Agreement, which collectively govern your Membership and Accounts. You agree that additional accounts and services you request in the future will be governed by this Agreement, as amended from time to time. Unless you waive your rights, you understand that certain account designations, such as a joint ownership with right of survivorship or POD beneficiary designation may be invalidated upon the Credit Union's receipt of notice of marriage dissolution or a testamentary disposition, as required by applicable law.

I. Membership and Accounts

Important Information about Procedures for Opening New Accounts. To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. When you open an account, we will ask you your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

1. Membership Eligibility. To be eligible for membership in the Credit Union you must be an individual or entity qualifying within the Credit Union's field of membership and must maintain at least one share as required by the Credit Union's Bylaws. You authorize us to check financial information data, and employment history about you by any means allowed by law, including obtaining a credit report or credit score from any consumer reporting agency to verify your eligibility for any accounts and services we offer, or you request.

2. Membership Termination or Expulsion. If you are expelled from membership, we are required to close all your accounts and services with the Credit Union. Member services may be terminated at any time without prior notice to you. You may be expelled from membership for any reason allowed by applicable law, including causing a loss to the Credit Union, nonparticipation, threatening conduct, or failure to comply with Credit union agreements. The Credit Union will notify members of their expulsion including the reason for such expulsion. The Credit Union will promptly pay amounts in any deposit account to the expelled member as provided by state law and expelled members have the right to seek reinstatement. Expulsion will not relieve any member of any liabilities owed to the Credit Union and the Credit Union will not be liable for payment on any checking, withdrawal, or other item once your membership is terminated.

3. Single Party Individual Accounts. A single party account is an account owned by an individual person for a consumer purpose and not business purpose. The interest of a deceased individual owner will pass to the decedent's estate or POD beneficiary, if applicable, subject to other provisions of this Agreement governing our protection for honoring transfer and withdrawal requests of an owner or owner's agent prior notice of an owner's death.

4. Multiple Party Accounts. An account owned by two or more individual persons for a consumer purpose and not a business purpose is a multiple party account.

- a. Rights of Survivorship. If your account is a multiple party account, the account is owned as a joint account with rights of survivorship unless otherwise stated on the account card. If the account is a multiple party account without right of survivorship, the interest of a deceased owner will pass to the decedent's estate. If the account is a multiple party account with right of survivorship upon the death of one of the joint account owners, that person's interest will become the property of the surviving joint account owners. A surviving owner's interest is subject to the Credit Union's statutory lien for the deceased owner's obligations, and to any security interest or pledge granted by a deceased owner, even if a surviving owner did not consent to it.

- b. Rights of Multiple Party Account Owners. Any multiple party account owner (joint owner) is authorized to act for the other owner(s) and the Credit Union may accept orders and instructions regarding the account and requests for future services from any joint owner. Any joint account owner may terminate the account by withdrawing all funds in the account, stop payment on items drawn on an account, withdraw, or pledge all or any part of the shares of any account, including funds representing a membership share, without the consent of the other joint account owner(s) and the Credit Union shall have no duty to notify any other joint account owner(s). If the Credit Union receives written notice of a dispute between joint owners or receives inconsistent instructions from them, the Credit Union may suspend or terminate the account, require a Court order to act or require that all joint owners agree in writing to any transaction concerning the account.
 - c. Multiple Party Account Owner Liability. If any item deposited in a joint account is returned unpaid or an account is overdrawn, each of the joint account owners are jointly and severally liable to the Credit Union for the amount of the returned item or overdraft and any charges, regardless of who created the overdraft, deposited, or cashed the item or benefited from the transaction. If any joint owner is indebted to the Credit Union such that the Credit Union has a lien against an account of that joint owner, the Credit Union may enforce its rights against any or all funds in the joint account regardless of who contributed the funds to the joint account.
- 5. P.O.D. Account Designation. A Payable on Death (P.O.D.) account designation makes a single party or multiple party individual account payable to the owners during their lifetimes, and upon the death of the last joint owner, payable to the named P.O.D. beneficiary on your account card. If the P.O.D. account is held by more than one owner, each account holder will be subject to the rules pertaining to joint ownership as set forth above. Accounts payable to more than one P.O.D. beneficiary are owned jointly with right of survivorship. If there is no surviving P.O.D. beneficiary upon the death of the last owner, state law will determine ownership of the funds in the account. Any P.O.D. beneficiary shall not apply to IRA accounts, which shall be governed by a separate beneficiary designation. A P.O.D. beneficiary's interest is subject to the Credit Union's statutory lien for the deceased owner's obligations, and to any security interest or pledge granted by a deceased owner, even if a surviving owner did not consent to it. We are not obligated to notify any beneficiary/payee of the existence of any account nor the vesting of the beneficiary/payee's interest in any account, except as otherwise provided by law. This paragraph does not apply to an account held on behalf of or in the name of a trust.
- 6. Accounts for Minors. The Credit Union may make payments of funds directly to the minor without regard to his or her minority unless the Credit Union has received written notice from the minor owner's custodial parent or guardian to withhold payment from the minor and the Credit Union has had a reasonable opportunity to act on the notice. Unless a guardian is an account owner, the guardian shall not have any right to access the account. The Credit Union has no duty to inquire of the use or purpose of any transaction by the minor or joint account owner.
- 7. Uniform Transfers to Minors Account Designation. A Uniform Transfers to Minors Account ("UTMA") is an account designation for a single account established by a member as a custodian on behalf of a minor (a person under twenty-one (21) years of age). The custodian must open the account in his or her name and provide the minor's SSN on the account card. The custodian is the owner of the account for the exclusive right and benefit of the minor, and barring a court order otherwise, is the only party entitled to make deposits to, withdrawals from, or close the account. The custodian is the only person authorized to sign on the account. In the event of the custodian's death, resignation or incapacity, any successor custodian named on the account card may serve, otherwise, the Credit Union may place an administrative hold on the account, until it receives instructions from any person authorized to withdraw funds or a court order authorizing such withdrawal. The Credit Union has not provided you any tax advice on this account and you are advised to see a qualified tax advisor on the tax treatment of this account. When the minor attains age twenty-one, the account will be payable to the beneficiary upon notification and direction of the minor and custodian. If the minor dies, the account will be closed, and funds paid to the minor's Estate.
- 8. Accounts for Living Trusts. An account for a Living Trust is an account held by one or more trustees for the benefit of one or more beneficiaries pursuant to a revocable trust agreement. Upon request of the Credit Union, the trustee(s) will supply to the Credit Union a copy of the trust agreement evidencing trustee's authority. Trustee warrants that a valid Living Trust has been created, is currently in existence, and that trustor and beneficiary are members of the Credit Union. The Credit Union is under no obligation to act as a trustee or to inquire as to the powers or duties of the trustee(s). Trustee agrees to notify the Credit Union in writing if a change of trustee occurs. The Credit Union may withhold payment of funds to any party until proper evidence of authority is provided. Funds may be released to any one trustee acting alone or with a co-trustee. The Credit Union may rely upon the directions of any one trustee until a written notice of revocation of the living trust form is received. The trustee(s) agree to indemnify and hold the Credit Union harmless of any claim, damage or loss arising as a result of unauthorized acts of any trustee or former trustee unless a successor trustee notifies the Credit Union in writing prior to any unauthorized act. This Agreement shall be binding on the trust, successor trustee(s) and beneficiaries.

9. Fiduciary Accounts. A fiduciary account is an account opened by an executor, administrator, personal representative, guardian, conservator, or other fiduciary in such capacity authorized under a will, court order or trust instrument establishing the fiduciary relationship trustee, or a Representative Payee authorized by the Social Security Administration ("fiduciary"). The account owner is the estate, guardianship, conservatorship, trust, or Social Security Administration benefit recipient as the sole owner of this account. The fiduciary is authorized to act on behalf of the account owner but has no ownership interest in the account. The fiduciary is the only authorized party to transact on this account. The fiduciary is expressly authorized to endorse all items payable to or owned by the Account owner for deposit with or collection by the Credit Union and to execute such other agreements and to perform any other account transaction under the Agreement. The fiduciary is authorized to receive account information from the Credit Union, either orally or in writing, and any information related to the account. The authority given to the fiduciary shall remain in full force until a court order, termination of the account owner or written notice of revocation is received by the Credit Union either by a court appointed representative of the account owner or by the Social Security Administration, as applicable. Any such notice shall not affect any items in process at the time notice is given. The fiduciary will notify the Credit Union of any change in the account owner's status affecting the deposit relationship between the account owner and the Credit Union. The fiduciary warrants that all actions he or she takes regarding the account will be for the sole benefit of the account owner and that the fiduciary will not conduct any transaction on the account that will personally benefit the fiduciary or will not comply with the terms of the applicable laws, will, court order or instrument establishing the fiduciary relationship. The Credit Union may rely upon these representations and shall have no duty to examine such authorizing documents for compliance or inquire as to the powers and duties of the fiduciary and shall have no notice of any breach of fiduciary duties by the fiduciary unless the Credit Union has actual notice of wrongdoing. The account owner agrees that the Credit Union shall not be liable for any losses due to the account owner's failure to notify the Credit Union of any unauthorized acts of the fiduciary or changes to the relationship between the fiduciary and account owner. The account owner and fiduciary agree to indemnify and hold Credit Union harmless of any claim or liability as a result of unauthorized acts of the fiduciary upon which Credit Union relies prior to any actual notice of any account change or change of account owner.

10. Deposits. Deposits may be made to Checking, Savings, IRA, and Money Market deposit accounts in any amount by cash, check, or other item for deposit at the main office, any branch, all KCU ATM's or shared branching ATM's. The Credit Union may require that additional deposits to certificates be made in specific amounts. All deposit accounts are non-assignable and nontransferable to third parties. You agree not to deposit any substitute check or similar item that you have created, or for which no financial institution has provided any substitute check, warranties, and indemnity. If you do so, you agree to indemnify the Credit Union for all losses the Credit Union incurs in connection with the substitute check or item. You agree not to deposit any substitute check without our consent.

- a. Endorsements. You authorize the Credit Union, in its discretion, to accept transfers, checks, drafts, and other items for deposit into any of your accounts if they are made payable to, or to the order of, any one or more owners on the account, whether or not they are endorsed by all owners. You authorize the Credit Union to supply missing endorsements if the Credit Union chooses to supply such endorsements. When you deposit items to your account, you warrant that all prior endorsements are genuine. The Credit Union reserves the right to verify all endorsements on third party checks presented for deposit either in person or by comparison with member signature files. Insurance, Government, and certain other checks or drafts must be endorsed in person exactly as they are made payable. Endorsements must be placed in the space on the back of the check between the top edge and 1 1/2 inches from the top edge. The Credit Union may accept drafts or checks with endorsements outside this space. However, if any such endorsement causes any delay in processing the item for payment, you will be responsible for any loss incurred by the Credit Union due to the delay. The Credit Union may disregard information on any check other than the signature of the drawer and MICR information. Any item presented with a full payment legend must be presented in person to a Credit Union officer; otherwise, payment is made with full reservation of rights.
- b. Collection of Items. The Credit Union shall not be responsible for deposits made by mail or at an unstaffed facility until the Credit Union actually receives them. In handling items for deposit or collection, the Credit Union only acts as your agent and assumes no responsibility beyond the exercise of ordinary care. The Credit Union will not be liable for default or negligence of any correspondent or for loss in transit, and each correspondent will only be liable for its own negligence. The Credit Union reserves the right to send any item for collection.

- c. Final Payment. All noncash deposits posted to your account are provisional and subject to our receipt of final payment. If final payment is not received, we reserve the right to charge your account for the amount of those deposits. After we have received final payment, we refer to these deposits as collected items. If the Credit Union incurs any fee to collect your deposit item, the Credit Union may charge such fees to your account. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse or to return all or a part of a deposit or to close your account.
- d. Direct Deposits. The Credit Union may offer direct deposit options allowing you to preauthorize deposits (i.e., payroll checks, Social Security or retirement checks, or other government checks) or preauthorize transfers from other accounts at the Credit Union. You must authorize any direct deposits to your accounts by a separate authorization form. If applicable, you must notify the Credit Union at least 30 days prior to any direct deposit or preauthorized transfer if you wish to cancel the direct deposit or direct transfer option. Upon a filing of bankruptcy, if you fail to cancel any direct deposit authorization, you instruct your employer and the Credit Union to make and apply direct deposits in accordance with your authorization on file with the Credit Union. If the Credit Union is required to reimburse the U.S. Government for any benefit payment directly deposited into your account for any reason, you agree the Credit Union may deduct the amount returned from any of your accounts, unless prohibited by law.
- e. Crediting of Deposits. Unless otherwise stated in the Funds Availability Policy below, deposits received at our offices on business days before the deposit cutoff time will be credited to your account on the first business day after the day we receive your deposit. Deposits made on Saturdays, Sundays, and Credit Union holidays will be credited to your account on the next business day. Deposits received at unstaffed teller locations such as night depositories will be credited on the day funds are removed and processed by the Credit Union.
- f. Certificates. Certificate accounts are governed by the terms of this Agreement and the terms and disclosures set forth on the certificate for each account, which is incorporated herein by this reference.
- g. Special Deposit Account Privileges
 - Peak Account. The Credit Union offers special checking account privileges for members with a Peak Account if they meet the required qualifications during the qualification period. The qualification period runs from the 1st day of the month until the last day of the month. The qualifiers for Peak Account are:
 - (1) Complete 12 or more in-person or online point of sale (POS) transactions, or debit or credit card purchases (excluding recurring payments set up on the debit or credit card) that post and clear by close of business on the last day of the month. Qualifying credit card transactions must be made with a credit card that is under the same Primary Membership Account as the Peak Account;
 - (2) Sign up for electronic account statements (e-statements) by the last day of the month; and
 - (3) Complete a qualifying Electronic Transaction that posts by the last day of the month. This can include receiving a direct deposit, conducting an outgoing ACH transaction, or performing one online bill payment transaction using our Bill Pay Service.

For each qualification period in which the Peak Account qualifications are met, the tiered dividend rate will be paid on applicable balances and nationwide ATM fees will be refunded up to $25 a month. Transactions must post and reflect on the monthly statement for the qualification period to be counted as a qualifier towards that month's Peak Account benefits. If the qualifications are not met during the applicable qualification period, the account will earn the Non-Qualifying Base Rate and is not eligible for ATM fee refunds for that qualification period. For more information on rates and tiered balances, please refer to the Rate & Fee Schedule. The Peak Account is available for personal accounts only and is limited to one per Tax ID. number.

- Holiday Account. The Credit Union offers special savings account privileges for members establishing a Holiday savings account. A Holiday savings account may be established at any time and runs through October 31 of each year. The balance in your account, will be transferred to a designated checking account of yours on November 1 of each year. All other terms governing savings accounts will govern this account.
- Kids Club. The Credit Union offers a special account for members up to age 12. The Kids Club Account is a dividend bearing, fee free account. Accounts for minors require an adult co-owner.

- Launch! Savings. The Credit Union offers youth savings account privileges for members ages 13-17. When the minor owner reaches 18, the owner may remove the adult signer with authorization of the member.
- Launch! Account. The Credit Union offers checking account privileges for members ages 13–17. Account privileges for qualified members include complimentary box of checks, no per check fees, no monthly fee, overdraft protection options, and no minimum balance requirement. With parent or guardian authorization, minor members may request a Visa Debit Card. When the minor owner reaches age 18, the account will convert to a Peak Account and the owner may remove the adult signer who was previously required to sign on the account.

11. Account Access.

- a. Authorized Signature. In order to access any account, the Credit Union must have an authorized signature of yours on an account card or your electronic acceptance of our Membership & Account Agreement. The Credit Union is authorized to recognize your signature but will not be liable for refusing to honor any item or instruction of yours if it believes in good faith that the signature on such item or instruction is not genuine. If you have authorized the use of a facsimile signature, the Credit Union may honor any check that appears to bear your facsimile signature even if it was made by an unauthorized person. If you give your account number to a third person, you authorize us to honor transactions initiated by the third person even if you did not specifically authorize a particular transaction.
- b. Access Options. You may make withdrawals or transfers from your account in any manner which is permitted by the Credit Union (i.e., check, automated teller machines (ATMs), in person, by mail, automatic transfer, telephone, fax, or online/mobile banking). If you make withdrawals by check, the check must be properly completed and signed by you or your representative whose authority is on file with us. The Credit Union may return as unpaid any check that is not in the form provided by the Credit Union. The Credit Union may restrict the withdrawals or transfers on your accounts. We have the right to review and approve any form of power of attorney and may restrict account withdrawals or transfers. We are under no obligation to honor any power of attorney which we reasonably conclude is invalid or unreliable or has been revoked.
- c. ACH & Wire Transfers. You may receive credits or debits to your account via ACH (“Automated Clearing House”) transfer. ACH transactions are governed by the rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association. When you initiate an ACH or wire, you may identify either the recipient or any financial institution by name and by account or identifying number. The Credit Union (and other institutions) may rely on the account or other identifying number you give, even if it does not match the party named in your instructions. Wire transfers are governed by Federal Reserve Subpart B of Regulation J if the transfer is cleared through the Federal Reserve. Wire Transfers and ACH transactions may be subject to fees as disclosed on the Business Rate and Fee schedule.
 - (1) Provisional Payment. Credit given to you with respect to an automated clearing house (ACH) credit entry is provisional until we receive final settlement for such entry through a Federal Reserve Bank. If we do not receive such final settlement, you are hereby notified and agree that we are entitled to a refund of the amount credited to you in connection with such entry, and the party making payment to you via such entry (i.e., the originator of the entry) shall not be deemed to have paid you in the amount of such entry.
 - (2) Notice Disclosure. Under the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association, which are applicable to ACH transactions involving your account, we are not required to give next day notice to you of receipt of an ACH item and will not do so. However, we will continue to notify you of the receipt of payments in the periodic statements we provide to you.
 - (3) Choice of Law Disclosure. We may accept on your behalf payment to your account which have been transmitted through one or more Automated Clearing Houses (ACH) and which are not subject to the Electronic Fund Transfer Act and your rights and obligations with respect to such payments shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of Washington as provided by the operating rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association, which are applicable to ACH transaction involving your account.
- d. Transactions by Mail. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Credit Union may permit you to make deposits, transfers, and withdrawals by mail. Transfers and withdrawals by mail will require a signed written request by you. Such transactions will be posted to your account as of the day the transaction is processed at the Credit Union.

- e. Credit Union Examination. The Credit Union may disregard information on any check other than the signature of the drawer and amount of the item and any magnetic encoded information. You agree the Credit Union does not fail to exercise ordinary care in paying an item solely because its procedures do not provide for sight examination of items.
- f. Electronic Check Transactions.
 - (1) Electronic Checks. If you authorize a merchant to electronically debit your checking account using the routing, account, and serial number of your check to initiate the transfer, whether the check is blank, partially, or fully completed and signed, such authorization is an electronic check conversion. An electronic check conversion is an electronic funds transfer ("EFT") subject to the terms of the Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement. You authorize us to honor any electronic check conversion from your checking account just the same as a regular written check.
 - (2) Electronic Re-presented Checks. If you write a check on a personal account that we return unpaid because of insufficient or uncollected funds, payee or any subsequent holder of the check may re-present the check to us, through an electronic instruction ("Electronic Re-presented Check") to charge your account for the amount of the check. If we receive an electronic re-presented check, we will pay or return the electronic re-presented check as if the original paper check was presented to us. Any collection fee you authorize the merchant to debit from your account is an electronic funds transfer subject to the terms of the Electronic Funds Transfer Agreement. If you want to reverse an electronic re-presented check, you must give us an affidavit within 15 days after we send or make available to you the periodic statement that reflects payment of that electronic re-presented check. In your affidavit, you must declare and swear under oath that the electronic re-presented check was ineligible or unauthorized. If we receive a proper notice or affidavit from you within the 15-day period, we will credit your account with the amount of the charge. If you wish to stop payment of any electronic re-presented check, you must follow the procedures contained in this Agreement for stopping payment of checks, not the procedures for stopping payment on electronic loan or bill payments. If you ask us to request the depositor's bank to send us the original paper check or a copy of the paper check, and we provide it to you, you agree that you will not seek to have your account credited due to a prior stop payment order or if the item is otherwise ineligible for collection.

12. Account Transaction Limitations. The Credit Union is only required to permit a withdrawal if you have sufficient available funds in your account to cover the full amount of the withdrawal. Drafts or other transfer or payment orders which are drawn against insufficient available funds will be subject to a service charge, set forth in the Rate and Fee Schedule. If there are sufficient available funds to cover some but not all your withdrawal orders, the Credit Union may allow those withdrawals for which there are sufficient available funds in any order at the Credit Union's discretion. The Credit Union can also refuse to allow a withdrawal in other cases; for example: any dispute between the owners about the account (unless a court has ordered the Credit Union to allow the withdrawal); a legal garnishment or attachment is served; the account has been pledged as collateral for a debt to the Credit Union; any required documentation has not been presented; or you fail to repay a Credit Union loan on time. Any garnishment is subject to the Credit Union's lien or security interest in an account. You will be advised of the reasons for refusal if such action is taken. The Credit Union reserves the right to require members to give notice in writing of any intended withdrawals from any account (except checking) of not less than 7 days and up to 60 days before such withdrawal.

13. Overdrafts. An overdraft balance could occur in several ways, such as:

- Payment of checks, ATM/debit card transactions, ACH/electronic funds transfers, or other withdrawal requests.
 - The imposition of bank service charges.
 - The deposit of items which, according to our Funds Availability Policy are treated as not yet available or finally paid.
- a. Overdraft Liability. If on any day, the available funds in your checking account are not sufficient to cover check and other debit transactions posted to your account, those check and debit transactions will be handled in accordance with our overdraft procedures, or the overdraft protection plan you have with us. The Credit Union's determination of an insufficient account balance may be made at any time between presentation and the Credit Union's midnight deadline with only one review of the account required. The Credit Union has no duty to notify you of insufficient funds. If an overdraft occurs, your account will then be subject to a non-sufficient funds (NSF) charge for the check or other debit transaction, whether paid or returned, as set forth in the Rate and Fee Schedule. We may charge an NSF fee each time a check or other debit transaction is presented for payment, therefore you may be assessed more than one fee as a result of resubmission of previously returned checks or other debit transactions. Except as otherwise agreed in writing, the Credit Union, by covering one or any overdraft, does not agree to cover overdrafts in the future and may discontinue covering overdrafts at any time. If the Credit Union pays a check or debit transaction that would otherwise overdraw your account, you agree to pay the overdraft amount immediately. We reserve the right to pursue collection of previously dishonored items at any time, including giving a payor bank extra time beyond the midnight deadline limits. If your account is overdrawn and we find that funds are available in another account owned by you, we may transfer the funds to resolve the negative balance amount.

- b. Overdraft Determination. Overdrafts will be determined based on the available balance in your account at the time of presentment. Your available balance may be lower than your actual balance due to funds held for debit card transactions you have authorized, and deposited checks held pursuant to our funds availability policy. To avoid an overdraft, you can view your available balance through Online Banking, Mobile Banking, and at ATMs. Transactions may not be presented in the order that you make them. KCU posts checks, items, and executes other transactions in the order in which they are received. The order in which checks or items are received and processed may affect if an overdraft occurs and the total amount of overdraft fees that may be charged to your account.
- c. Overdraft Protection Coverage.
- (1) Eligibility. Every member is eligible for overdraft protection on checking accounts approved for overdraft protection. Transfers from Savings or Money Market accounts are eligible for use upon election. Transfers from a Visa Credit Card or Overdraft Line of Credit must be applied for and approved through the Credit Union's loan underwriting process.
 - (2) Limitations. Your coverage is limited to the available balance of your Savings, Money Market, Visa Credit Card, or Overdraft Line of Credit.
 - (3) Transfer Fees. You will not be charged a transfer fee if funds are automatically transferred from your linked Savings or Money Market account. Interest will accrue daily upon advance of funds from your Visa Credit Card or Overdraft Line of Credit and standard APR's will apply.
- d. Courtesy Pay. The Credit Union offers two Courtesy Pay options for your checking account:
- Courtesy Pay coverage for your Checks, ACH, and recurring Debit Transactions.
 - Courtesy Pay coverage for your Checks, ACH, recurring Debit transactions, ATM transactions, and Debit Card purchases.

If you opt-in to Courtesy Pay coverage for your Checks, ACH, and recurring Debit Transactions, you can elect to additionally opt-in to coverage for your one-time ATM transactions and Debit Card purchases. If you elect to opt-out of Courtesy Pay coverage for your Checks, ACH, and recurring Debit Card transactions, you will not have the option to opt-in to coverage for your one-time ATM transactions and Debit Card purchases. The following information applies to both options.

- (1) Fees. There is no additional cost to participate in Courtesy Pay. The only cost incurred will be Courtesy Pay fee for each item paid as reflected on the Rate and Fee Schedule. You will not be charged a Courtesy Pay fee if a transaction results in an overdraft and your available account balance goes negative $5.00 or less at the time of the transaction. The maximum number of Courtesy Pay fees charged per day is six (6). Once the daily cap of 6 has been met, additional overdraft transactions will be allowed, up to the Courtesy Pay limit, but no additional Courtesy Pay fees will be charged for that day.
- (2) Eligibility Requirements. Courtesy Pay is available on consumer checking accounts after they have been open at least 60 days and have been maintained in good standing, defined as:
 - i. Making regular deposits sufficient to cover transactions,

- ii. Bringing the account to a positive balance for a 24-hour period at least once every 30 days or less; and,
 - iii. There are no legal orders outstanding on your account.
- (3) Courtesy Pay Coverage Limits. The Credit Union will establish a set amount in excess of the member's account balance of which overdrafts may be paid. For each eligible account, this amount is $500. This means the Credit Union may cover transactions for over-drafted items up to $500, plus fees, beyond the account balance; however, due to the timing of pending and settling transactions, there may be times when an account goes negative beyond this amount. The limit will not be included in any "available" amount in the account balance. Over the counter transactions are ineligible. The Credit Union reserves the right to amend this program and will notify you of the changes as required.
 - (4) Courtesy Pay Opt-In. At account opening members will elect which method of Courtesy Pay coverage they wish to participate in. The Credit Union will provide a confirmation notice to you in writing which will include a statement informing you of your right to revoke your consent and the methods to do so.
 - (5) Courtesy Pay Opt-out. Every checking account owner has the right to opt-out of any or all the options. They are clearly optional and may not be right for everyone. You are not required to use these features and you may opt-out at any time through any of the following ways:
 - In person at any of our branch locations.
 - Submit your request online through online chat or secure email at www.kitsapcu.org.
 - Call the Credit Union with your request at (800) 422-5852.
 - (6) Credit Union Discretion. If you continue to meet the eligibility requirements, we may approve your reasonable overdrafts as a discretionary courtesy. The Credit Union may limit your transactions at our branch locations at any time when your account is past due or overdrawn. We are not obligated to pay any item presented for payment if your account does not contain sufficient funds, even though we may have previously paid overdrafts for you. We will not approve an overdraft in excess of the overdraft limit.
 - (7) Exceeding Your Courtesy Pay Coverage Limit. Any item that causes a negative balance in excess of the established limit will result in items being returned. A non-sufficient funds (NSF) fee for each item returned will be charged to your account as outlined in the Credit Union's Rate and Fee Schedule.
 - (8) Excessive Use. The Credit Union considers eleven (11) or more Courtesy Pay Fees in a statement period to be excessive use of the Courtesy Pay Program. Members with excessive use will be provided additional notifications, and if the excessive use does not cease, may have their Courtesy Pay privileges revoked.
 - (9) Suspension or Revocation of Courtesy Pay. Your Courtesy Pay coverage may be suspended or revoked for the following reasons:
 - Failure to bring your account to a positive balance within 30 days (maintained for at least 24 hours);
 - Excessive use;
 - Account is involved in legal action such as bankruptcy, levies, garnishments;
 - Delinquency of a loan or VISA account;
 - Derogatory activity on any related account;
 - Illegal activity such as check kiting or fraudulent deposits;

You agree that your authorization for an electronic check transaction occurs when you initiate such a transaction after receiving any notice regarding the merchant's right to process the transaction. Notice may include a sign posted by the merchant at the time and place of your transaction. All terms governing electronic funds transfer services will apply to electronic check transactions except the $50 and $500 limits of liability for unauthorized transactions in Section 4. Member Liability. You remain responsible for notifying us of any unauthorized electronic check transaction shown on your statement.

2. Service Limitations. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse any transaction that would draw upon insufficient funds or require us to increase our required reserve on the account unless you have an approved overdraft protection account or loan with available funds. The Credit Union may set other limits on the amount of any transaction, and you will be notified of those limits.

- a. Account Information. The account balance and transaction history information may be limited to recent account information involving your accounts. Also, the availability of funds for transfer or withdrawal may be limited due to the processing time for any ATM deposit transactions and our Funds Availability Policy.
- b. Deposits. Deposits made at ATMs will be credited to your account the day we receive the funds. Deposits are subject to verification by the Credit Union. You should review the Credit Union's Funds Availability Policy to determine the availability of funds deposited at ATMs.
- c. Withdrawals. You may withdraw funds from your accounts at ATMs as often as you like. However, a daily withdrawal limit may apply.
- d. Transfers. You may make funds transfers to your other accounts as often as you like. You may transfer or withdraw up to the available balance in your account or up to the available credit limit on a line of credit at the time of the transfer, except as limited under this Agreement or your deposit or loan agreements.

- e. Purchases. There is no limit on the number of Card or POS purchase transaction you may make during a statement period. A daily maximum dollar limit may be applied, or up to the available balance in your account, whichever is lower.
- f. Cash Line Audio System. Subject to the transaction limitations set forth in the Membership and Account section above, you may access your accounts using the audio response system via touch-tone telephone only. This service may be interrupted for a short time each day for data processing.
- g. Online Banking Service Limitations. Subject to the transaction limitations set forth above, the following limitations on online banking transactions may apply:
 - (1) E-Mail. The Credit Union may not immediately receive E-mail communications that you send, and the Credit Union will not take action based on E-mail requests until the Credit Union actually receives your message and has a reasonable opportunity to act. If you need to contact the Credit Union immediately regarding an unauthorized transaction or stop payment request, you may call the Credit Union at (360) 662-2000 or (800) 422-5852.
 - (2) Bill Payments. You may authorize new payment instructions or edit previously authorized payment instructions for bill payments that are either variable (i.e., payments on merchant charge accounts that vary in amount) or fixed (i.e., fixed loan payments). When you transmit a bill payment instruction to us, you authorize us to transfer funds to make the bill payment transaction from your checking account. We will process bill payment transfer requests only for such creditors as you authorize. The Credit Union will not process any bill payment transfer if we know the required transaction information is incomplete. In any event, the Credit Union will not be liable for any transaction that contains incorrect information that the Credit Union was not responsible for entering or knowing.

If there are insufficient funds in your account to make the bill payment request, your account will incur a Non-Sufficient Funds (NSF) charge. Subsequent payment requests may not be processed until funds are collected for all previous payments. The Credit Union's bill payment processor may attempt to clear the payment (s) from your account up to three (3) times. After six (6) NSF occurrences, your Bill Payment account may be closed. The Credit Union reserves the right to refuse to process payment instructions that reasonably appears to the Credit Union to be fraudulent or erroneous.

The Credit Union will withdraw the designated funds from your account for the bill payment transfer within five (5) business days after your payment request has been processed. The Credit Union will process your bill payment transfer within three (3) business days of the date you schedule for payment.

It is your responsibility to schedule your bill payments in such a manner that your obligations will be paid on time. You should enter and transmit your bill payment instructions at least ten (10) days before a bill is due. You are responsible for any late payments or finance charges that may be imposed as a result of your failure to transmit a timely bill payment authorization. You may cancel or stop payment on variable or fixed bill payments instructions under certain circumstances.

If you discover an error in or want to change a payment instruction (i.e., payment date or payment amount) for a bill payment that you have already scheduled for transmission through the bill payment service, you may electronically edit or cancel your payment request through bill payment. Your cancellation request must be entered and transmitted through the bill payment service before the date you have scheduled for payment. If your request is not timely entered, you will be responsible for the payment. Stop payments cannot be placed on payments that have been sent electronically.

3. Conditions of EFT Use. The use of your Account and EFT services are subject to the following conditions:

- a. Ownership of Cards. Any Card or other device which we supply to you is our property and must be returned to us, or any other person whom we authorize to act as our agent, or to any person who is authorized to honor the Card, immediately according to instructions. The Card may be repossessed at any time in our sole discretion without demand or notice. You cannot transfer your Card or account to another person.
- b. Illegal Use of Internet Gambling. You agree that all transactions that you initiate by use of your Card are legal in the jurisdiction where you live and/or where the transaction occurred. Internet gambling may be illegal in the jurisdiction in which you are located, including the United States. Your Card may only be used for legal transactions. Display of a payment Card logo by an online merchant does not mean that internet gambling transactions are lawful in all jurisdictions in which you may be located. We have restricted all online gambling transactions with the Card.

- c. Security of PIN. The PIN that you select is for your security purposes and you are responsible for safekeeping your PIN. The PIN is confidential and should not be disclosed to third parties or recorded on or with the Card. You agree not to disclose or otherwise make your PIN number available to anyone not authorized to sign on your accounts. If you authorize anyone to use your PIN, that authority shall continue until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union. If you fail to maintain the security of these access codes and the Credit Union suffers a loss, we may terminate your Card services and account services immediately.

4. Member Liability.

- a. Single & Multiple Party Accounts. The following member liability provisions apply only to single and multiple party accounts. You are responsible for all transfers you authorize using your EFT services under this agreement. If you permit other persons to use an EFT service or Card, or access code, you understand that person may use those to review your account information and make account transactions. You are responsible for any transactions they authorize or conduct on any of your accounts until you specifically revoke such authority by notifying the Credit Union that transactions and access by that person are no longer authorized and change your PIN or access code.

Tell us at once if you believe anyone has used your account, Card, or access code, and accessed your accounts without your authority or if you believe that an electronic funds transfer has been made without your permission using information from your check. Telephoning is the best way of keeping your possible losses down.

For Card purchase transactions, if you notify us of your lost or stolen Card, you may not be liable for any losses provided you were not fraudulent in handling your Card and provide us with a written statement regarding your unauthorized Card claim; otherwise, the following liability limits will apply.

For all other EFT transactions except electronic check transactions, if you tell us of the unauthorized use of your account within two (2) business days, you can lose no more than $50 if someone accessed your account without your permission. If you do not tell us within two (2) business days after you learn of the unauthorized use of your account or EFT service, and we can prove that we could have stopped someone from accessing our account without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500. Also, if your statement shows EFT transfers that you did not make including made by Card, PIN, access code or other means, tell us at once.

If you do not tell us within sixty (60) days after the statement was mailed to you, you may be liable for the following amounts if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from making the transfers if you had told us in time: (i) for unauthorized Card purchase transactions up to the limits set forth above and (ii) for all other unauthorized EFT transactions up to the full amount of the loss. If a good reason (such as a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

- b. Notice to Credit Union. If you believe your Card or PIN, or access code has been lost or stolen or that someone has transferred or may transfer money from your account without your permission call:

(360) 662-2000 or (800) 422-5852

or write to:

Kitsap Credit Union

PO Box 990

Bremerton, WA 98337

After hours Visa Debit card holders can call (800) 316-5996.

- 5. Business Days. Our business days are Monday through Friday 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. Holidays are not included.

- 6. Fees and Charges. There are certain charges for electronic fund transfer services as set forth below. At this present time, we do not impose any specific fees for use of your Card. We may impose fees in the future and we will notify you of any fee changes as required by law.

- a. Online Banking. Online banking is free.
- b. ATM Fees. If you use an ATM that is not operated by us, you may be charged an ATM surcharge by the ATM operator or ATM network utilized for such a transaction as well as a fee by Kitsap Credit Union. The ATM surcharge will be debited from your account if you elect to complete the transaction.

- c. Replacement Cards. A fee may be assessed to replace a Card prior to its expiration as disclosed on our Rate and Fee Schedule.
- d. Foreign Transactions. Purchases made in foreign countries will be billed to you in U.S. dollars. The currency conversion rate for international transactions as established by VISA International, Inc. is a rate selected by VISA from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate VISA itself receives, or the government- mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date. In addition, you will be charged a Foreign Transaction Fee of a percentage of the transaction amount for any Card transaction made in a foreign country or made with merchants located in foreign countries, even if the transaction is initiated within the U.S. as disclosed on the Rate and Fee schedule.

7. Right to Receive Documentation of Transfers.

- a. Periodic Statements. Deposits, purchases, transfers, and withdrawals transacted through an ATM or POS terminal or merchant will be recorded on your periodic statement. You will receive a statement monthly unless there are no transfers in a particular month. In any case you will receive the statement at least quarterly.
- b. Terminal Receipt. You may obtain a receipt at the time you make a transaction using an ATM, POS terminal or with a participating Visa merchant, except some electronic terminals will not provide receipts for transactions of $15 or less.
- c. Preauthorized Credits. If you have a direct deposit made to your account at least once every sixty (60) days from the same source and you do not receive a receipt (such as a pay stub), you can call us at (360) 662-2000 to find out whether or not the deposit has been made.

8. Preauthorized EFT Stop Payment Rights. If you have told us in advance to make regular payments (other than bill payments) out of your account, you may stop any of these payments by notifying us either verbally or in writing. We must receive your request at least three (3) business days before the scheduled date of the payment. You will need to tell us your name, account number, the payment amount, the payment date, and the person or company who is to receive the payment. If you call, we will require written confirmation of the stop payment order within fourteen (14) calendar days. If we do not receive the written confirmation within the fourteen days specified, your oral stop payment order will cease to be binding. Your stop payment order is effective only for the preauthorized payment date which you give us. If the stop payment order is not received in time for us to act upon it, we will not be liable to you or to any party for payment of the item. If you order us to stop one of these payments three (3) business days or more before the transfer is scheduled and we do not do so, we may be liable.

9. Account Information Disclosure. We will disclose information to third parties about your account or the transfers you make:

- As necessary to complete transfers;
- To verify the existence of sufficient funds to cover specific transactions upon the request of a third party, such as a credit bureau or merchant;
- To comply with a government agency or court orders; or
- If you give us your express permission.

10. Credit Union Liability for Failure to Make Transfers. If we do not complete a transfer to or from your account on time or in the correct amount according to our agreement with you, we will be liable for your losses or damages. However, there are some exceptions in which we will not be liable, for instance:

- If, through no fault of ours, you do not have enough money in your account to make the transfer or the transfer would go over the credit limit on your line of credit.
- If you used the wrong PIN or used a PIN, or Card, or the phone banking system or online banking personal computer access system in an incorrect manner
- If the ATM where you are making the transfer does not have enough cash.
- If the ATM was not working properly and you knew about the problem when you started the transaction.
- If circumstances beyond our control (such as fire, flood, or power failure) prevent the transaction.
- If the money in your account is subject to legal process or other claim.
- If your account is frozen because of a delinquent loan

- If the error was caused by an ATM or payment network or any other participating network.
- If there are other exceptions as established by the Credit Union.
- The ATM terminal may retain your Card in certain instances, in which event you may contact the Credit Union about its replacement.

11. Termination of EFT Services. You agree that we may terminate this Agreement and your use of your EFT services, if you, or any authorized user of your PIN, breach this or any other agreement with us, have caused us a loss, or if we have reason to believe that there has been an unauthorized use of your PIN, VISA Credit Card, or Visa Debit Card. We will notify you or any other party on your account if we have canceled or will cancel this Agreement.

You or any other party on your account can terminate this Agreement by notifying us in writing. Termination of service will be effective the first business day following receipt of your written notice. Termination of this Agreement will not affect the rights and responsibilities of the parties under this Agreement for transactions initiated before termination.

12. Notices. The Credit Union reserves the right to change the terms and conditions upon which this service is offered. The Credit Union will mail notice to you at least twenty-one (21) days before the effective date of any change, as required by law. Use of this service is subject to existing regulations governing the Credit Union account and any future changes to those regulations.

13. Billing Errors. Billing errors include:

- Billing Errors. The following are considered billing errors:
 - Unauthorized electronic fund transfer (fraudulent transactions).
 - Incorrect electronic fund transfer to or from the consumer's account.
 - Omission of an electronic fund transfer from a periodic statement.
 - Computational or bookkeeping error made by the financial institution relating to an electronic fund transfer.
 - Consumer's request for documentation or for additional information or clarification concerning an electronic fund transfer, including a request the consumer makes to determine whether an error exists.
- Notification. In cases of errors or questions about your electronic transfers and Card transactions, telephone us at the phone numbers or write us at the address set forth above as soon as you can. We must hear from you no later than sixty (60) days after we sent the first statement on which the problem appears.
 - (1) Tell us your name and account number (if any).
 - (2) Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
 - (3) Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send us your complaint or question in writing within ten (10) business days. We will tell you the results of our investigation within ten (10) business days after we hear from you and will correct the error promptly. For errors related to transactions occurring within thirty (30) days after the first deposit to the account (new accounts), we will tell you the results of our investigation within twenty (20) business days. If we need more time, however, we may take up to forty-five days (45) calendar days to investigate your complaint or question ninety (90) calendar days for POS transaction errors, new account transaction errors, or errors involving transactions initiated outside the United States. If we decide to do this, we will apply a provisional credit to your account within ten (10) business days for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of the money during the same time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within ten (10) business days, we may not provide provisional credit your account.

If we decide after our investigation that an error did not occur, we will deliver or mail to you an explanation of our findings within three (3) business days after the conclusion of our investigation. If you request, we will provide you copies of documents (to the extent possible without violating other members' rights to privacy) relied upon to conclude that the error did not occur. If we have provided provisional credit, we will also notify you that the credit will be removed and that we will honor checks, drafts or similar instruments payable to third parties and preauthorized transfers from the consumer's account (without charge to the consumer as a result of an overdraft) for a period of five business days.

14. Safety Notices. The following information is a list of safety precautions regarding the use of Automated Teller Machine (ATM) and Night Deposit Facilities.

- Be aware of your surroundings, particularly at night.
- Consider having someone accompany you when the ATM or night deposit facility is used after dark.
- If another person is uncomfortably close to you at the time of your transaction, ask the person to step back before you complete your transaction.
- Refrain from displaying your cash at the ATM or night deposit facility. As soon as your transaction is completed, place your money in your purse or wallet. Count the cash later in the safety of your car or home.
- If you notice anything suspicious at the ATM or night deposit facility, consider using another ATM or night deposit facility or coming back later. If you are in the middle of a transaction and you notice something suspicious, cancel the transaction, take your ATM access device or deposit envelope, and leave.
- If you are followed after making a transaction, go to the nearest public area where people are located.
- Do not write your personal identification number or code on your Card.
- Report all crimes to law enforcement officials immediately.

15. ATM One-Time Debit Charge Overdraft Coverage. If you wish the Credit Union to pay an ATM or one-time debit charge overdraft, you must opt-in in writing. You will be charged a courtesy pay fee as set forth on the Rate and Fee Schedule.
